"Hotel"

"Hotel" transports us to the confines of a grand hotel in 1960s Singapore. The play follows the lives of the hotel's guests and staff, each with their own secrets and aspirations. Amidst the glamour and luxury, "Hotel" examines the themes of loneliness, alienation, and the search for connection in modern society.

Hotel, a microcosm of human relationships in an urban environment

"A Dream Play"

Inspired by August Strindberg's classic, "A Dream Play" blends surrealism and realism to create a dreamlike landscape. The play follows Agnes, a young woman who embarks on a journey through her own psyche, encountering a cast of enigmatic characters and confronting her deepest fears and desires.

"The Anniversary"

"The Anniversary" is a poignant and intimate portrayal of a couple's struggle to reconcile their past and present. As they celebrate their wedding anniversary, they delve into the secrets, regrets, and unspoken truths that have shaped their relationship. The play explores the complexities of marriage, the fragility of love, and the enduring power of forgiveness.

The Anniversary, a reflection on the burdens and blessings of love
