Founded in 2010 by visionary leader Dr. Angela Reddock-Wright, the club was born out of a desire to create a safe space for women to connect, grow, and support each other. Dr. Reddock-Wright, a renowned author, speaker, and advocate for women's empowerment, recognized the need for a collective where women could come together as a force for positive change.

The Red Stiletto Club is open to women from all walks of life, regardless of their age, race, religion, or socioeconomic status. The club's mission is to empower women to reach their full potential and make a difference in the world. This mission is carried out through a wide range of programs and events designed to foster personal and professional growth.

One of the club's core programs is its mentorship program. This program pairs experienced and successful women with women who are just starting their careers or who are looking to make a change in their lives. The mentors provide guidance, support, and advice, helping their mentees to overcome challenges, set goals, and achieve their dreams.

In addition to its mentorship program, the club also offers a variety of workshops, seminars, and networking events. These events cover a wide range of topics, from financial literacy to leadership development to health and wellness. The club's events are designed to provide women with the tools and knowledge they need to succeed in all aspects of their lives.

The Red Stiletto Club is more than just a collection of programs and events. It is a vibrant community of women who are committed to supporting each other. The club's members come from all walks of life, but they share a common goal: to empower themselves and others.

The club's members are involved in a variety of community service projects, including mentoring at-risk youth, providing support to survivors of domestic violence, and volunteering at local soup kitchens. The club also hosts an annual conference that brings together women from around the world to share ideas, collaborate on projects, and celebrate their collective power.

The Red Stiletto Club is a shining example of the power of sisterhood. The club's members are a force for change in their communities and in the world. They are women who are making a difference, one stiletto step at a time.
