Sarah was a few years older than Jessica, and she had a steady job as a nurse. She was friendly and outgoing, and she seemed to be everything that Jessica was looking for in a roommate. However, as the weeks went by, Jessica began to notice some strange things about Sarah.

For one thing, Sarah was always coming and going at odd hours. She would often leave the apartment in the middle of the night, and she would sometimes be gone for days at a time. Jessica also noticed that Sarah was always very secretive about her personal life. She never talked about her family or friends, and she never seemed to have any visitors.

One night, Jessica woke up to a strange noise coming from Sarah's room. She got out of bed and went to investigate, and she found Sarah standing in the doorway, staring at her with a blank expression on her face.

"What are you ng?" Jessica asked.

"I'm just looking at you," Sarah said.

"Why?" Jessica asked.

"Because I'm going to kill you," Sarah said.

Jessica screamed and ran out of the apartment. She called the police, and Sarah was arrested. Jessica never saw her again.

The Flatmate is a chilling story that will make you think twice about who you live with. It is a suspenseful thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end.

What Makes a Good Roommate?

If you're looking for a roommate, there are a few things you should keep in mind. First, it's important to find someone who is compatible with your lifestyle. If you're a night owl, you don't want to live with someone who goes to bed early. Similarly, if you're a clean freak, you don't want to live with someone who is messy.

It's also important to find someone who is respectful of your space and your belongings. You don't want to live with someone who is always borrowing your things without asking, or who is constantly coming and going at odd hours.

Finally, it's important to find someone who you can get along with. You don't have to be best friends with your roommate, but you should at least be able to have a civil conversation with them.

How to Find a Good Roommate

There are a few different ways to find a roommate. You can ask your friends or family if they know anyone who is looking for a place to live. You can also post an ad on Craigslist or another online classifieds site.

When you're looking for a roommate, it's important to be honest and upfront about your expectations. Let your potential roommate know what you're looking for in a roommate, and be sure to ask them about their lifestyle and habits.

It's also a good idea to meet your potential roommate in person before you decide to live with them. This will give you a chance to get to know them and see if you're compatible.

Finding a good roommate can be a challenge, but it's important to be patient and find someone who is compatible with your lifestyle and personality. By following these tips, you can increase your chances of finding a great roommate.
