The Mountains

Norway is also home to some of the most beautiful mountains in Europe. The mountains are covered in snow for most of the year, and they offer a great opportunity for hiking, skiing, and other outdoor activities. Some of the most popular mountains include the Jotunheimen mountains, the Rondane mountains, and the Trollheimen mountains.

The Northern Lights

The Northern Lights, also known as the aurora borealis, are a natural phenomenon that can be seen in the sky at night. The Northern Lights are caused by the interaction of charged particles from the sun with the Earth's atmosphere. The Northern Lights are most commonly seen in the winter months, and they are a truly unforgettable sight.

The Culture

Norway has a rich culture and history. The country is home to many museums and historical sites, and there are also a number of traditional festivals and events held throughout the year. Some of the most popular cultural attractions include the Viking Ship Museum in Oslo, the Nidaros Cathedral in Trondheim, and the Bergenhus Fortress in Bergen.

The People

The people of Norway are known for their warm hospitality. Norwegians are generally friendly and helpful, and they are always willing to share their culture and traditions with visitors. If you are planning a trip to Norway, be sure to take the time to meet some of the local people.

Travel Safety in Norway
